

Travel Scholarships for Participating in the International Summer School
'XXIII. Greifswalder Ukrainicum', 6 – 18 August 2018
*Murderous Identities?

The "Greifswalder Ukrainicum" is an international summer school on science, culture and language of Ukraine, organised by the Alfried Krupp Wissenschaftskolleg Greifswald and the University of Greifswald. It is funded by the Alfried Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach-Stiftung, Essen, Germany. Ukrainian language courses and seminars provide the unique opportunity to learn more about Ukraine in its diversity. Film screenings as well as public lectures complement the program and offer further views on Ukraine.

This year the invited lecturers are:

Laada Bilaniuk (Seattle): The Politics of Hybridity and Purity in Ukrainian Language and Identity (Language of instruction: English)

Georgiy Kasianov (Kyiv): Return of the Native. History, Politics and Culture in Ukraine and the Post-Communist Space (Language of instruction: Ukrainian)

Roman Dubasevych (Greifswald): Vom Kanon zu Kanonen (Language of instruction: German)

We are also very glad to welcome the following speakers for our evening program:

Margarita Balmaceda (Cambridge, MA / South Orange, NJ), Sofia Dyak (L'viv),

Andreas Kappeler (Vienna), Mirja Lecke (Bochum)
